THE FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY
JANUARY 2, 2011

"OUR GOD HAS APPEARED ON EARTH, AND LIVED AMONG MEN." (The Book of Baruch 3:38)

THE EPIPHANY

Up until the fourth century, the Epiphany was the feast of the Incarnation (Christmas) in the church of the Eastern Catholics. In many countries and cultures it is still a major understanding of the Incarnation. Popular emphasis has been on the story of the Magi, their gifts and the following of the Star. The emphasis in the worship of the Church has always been the fullness of the revelation brought about by the Incarnation. J.S. Pauluch Co.

RCIA NEWS

We meet on Tuesdays in the Parish Center. Our RCIA will meet this Tuesday to explore Social Justice at 7:00 PM in the Parish Center. You are welcome to join us.

COME HOME

For Christians, the Christmas season ends on the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, but our "Come Home" invitation must not end with this feast. The joy of Christmas should be part of us everyday throughout the year, and we should extend that joy to all who are searching for God's love and welcome.

SUNDAY SCRIPTURE

Our Gospel reading this Sunday is Matthew 2: 1-12. You are encouraged to reflect on this: The magi followed a star to find Jesus. Who or what leads you to Jesus today?

SCRIPTURE STUDY

This Monday our Scripture group meets to continue their study and discussion on Sabbath by Ronald Rolheiser. We meet at 7:00 PM in the Conference Room.

GOOD CELEBRATIONS

The United States Bishops state that while good celebration can foster and strengthen faith, poor celebrations can weaken and destroy it. We are all responsible for this good celebration. We support one another's faith by the kind of response we give to the Lord in our worship. That response needs to be active, alive, and enthusiastic. We make a difference to one another by the way we are attentive to what is happening at Mass. We can build one another up by the reverence we show. We can weaken one another just by our inattention, our look of boredom, our non-participation. We have an affect on one another even when we do not always know it. This is a concrete example of St. Paul's analogy of being "one body." (Father Richard Husted, OFM and Caroline Thomas)

PRAY FOR OUR MILITARY

Lord, hold our troops in your loving hands. Protect them as they protect us. Bless them and their families for the selfless acts they perform for us in our time of need and give us peace. I ask this in the name of Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK
The Epiphany of the Lord

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

God manifests Himself to us through the person of the Baby Jesus. He continues to show Himself in our daily lives and the events which unfold before us.

So many times we are too busy or distracted to notice God's presence. The Lord's presence can be found in a friend, a co-worker, a family member, event or a simple thought or smile.

We manifest God to others by the way we treat them, the way we include them in our lives, the forgiveness we hold in our hearts and extend to others.

May you find God's presence and love in your lives and the lives of others.

Peace,
Fr. John
